

Wynn Resorts Recognized on FORTUNE Magazine's World's Most Admired Companies List for 18th Consecutive Year

The Company also received first in its category for Quality of Products and Service

LAS VEGAS (February 4, 2026) — Wynn Resorts has once again been named to FORTUNE Magazine's World's Most Admired Companies list, continuing to lead the Hotels, Casinos & Resorts category as the highest-ranked casino resort company. This year, the Company moved up to third overall and ranked first for Quality of Products/Services and People Management. The Company also received among the highest marks in the areas of Innovation and Quality of Management.

"This acknowledgement, and the top ranking in quality, reflects the diligence, passion, and dedication of our team members across the globe," said Craig S. Billings, CEO of Wynn Resorts. "It is an honor to again be included on this prestigious list, and I am proud of our team's commitment to providing the outstanding service that sets us apart and defines the Wynn experience."

Wynn Resorts is recognized globally for its commitment to excellence. From thoughtfully curated events to world-class hospitality, the Company continues to deliver exceptional experiences for its guests.

In partnership with Korn Ferry, FORTUNE compiles the World's Most Admired Companies list by surveying top industry executives, directors, and analysts. Companies are evaluated across nine criteria, including investment value, quality of management and products, social responsibility, and ability to attract talent. Only companies ranking in the top half of their industry are included in the list.
