

Wynn Resorts Continues to Be Recognized on FORTUNE Magazine's 2025 List of the World's Most Admired Companies

The Company Receives Highest Ranking for a Casino Resort

LAS VEGAS (February 3, 2025) — Wynn Resorts has once again been recognized on FORTUNE Magazine's World's Most Admired Companies list for 2025, reaffirming its position as the highest-ranked gaming resort company. In addition to being the best ranked casino within the Hotel, Casinos, Resorts category, the Company also scored well in the Quality of Products/Services category.

"To be recognized on this prestigious list for the seventeenth year in a row is an incredible honor," said Craig S. Billings, CEO of Wynn Resorts. "This recognition is a direct result of our dedicated team members who create extraordinary experiences for guests every day."

The Company maintains a global reputation for exceptional service. From personally curated guest experiences by Wynn's world-class hospitality professionals to signature large-scale events like Revelry and Concours, Wynn Resorts continually raises the bar for excellence.

In partnership with Korn Ferry, FORTUNE compiles the World's Most Admired Companies list by surveying top industry executives, directors, and analysts. Companies are evaluated across nine criteria, including investment value, quality of management and products, social responsibility, and ability to attract talent. Only companies ranking in the top half of their industry are included in the list.
